TECHWIZARD-2025

SUMMARY-SHEET

EVENT NAME: HANDS-ON DATA STRUCTURE PRO

EVENT DATE: 13-OCT-2025

Event Summary

The Department of Computer Science and Engineering successfully organized TechWizard 2025, featuring the event "Hands on Data Structure Pro" on 13th October 2025. The event was conducted in two phases to evaluate both conceptual clarity and practical skills of the participants.

In the first phase, a paper-based quiz was held to assess students' understanding of fundamental data structures and algorithms. Based on the scores, the top 10 students were shortlisted for the second phase, which consisted of an application-based coding quiz competition. During this round, participants solved real-time coding problems, demonstrating logical thinking and practical implementation skills.

The event provided an engaging platform for students to strengthen their technical knowledge, problem-solving abilities, and competitive spirit. Overall, TechWizard 2025 was a successful and enriching learning experience for all participants.
